KIRK MORGAN HANDICAP MEMORIAL DOUBLES TOURNAMENT RULES

This tournament was named for Kirk Morgan, a dedicated young man, who grew up through the ranks of AJBC. He became an ABC bowler and continued to work with the YABA program as a Certified Coach/Instructor at Bowl-Mor Lanes in Colorado Springs. Kirk lost his battle with cancer at the age of 24, but his dreams for all young bowlers will continue.

Youth bowlers cannot have reached their 18th birthday as of August 1, 2024, and must have maintained compliance with USBC Youth Rule 400. 2. Participation: This is a doubles tournament consisting of 3 games. Doubles partners will be 1 adult and 1 youth. Multiple participation is allowed. However, a bowler may place only once with the same partner but may place more than once with a different partner. An adult may bowl with more than one youth at the same time, or a youth may bowl with more than one adult at the same time. In either instance, the bowler with multiple partners will pay lineage only once, lineage is $12.00 per 3 game series.
